

Job Overview:

Health, Safety and Wellbeing Advisor

Job Title: Health, Safety and Wellbeing Advisor	Location: Site-based	Company: GBG
Reporting to: HSEQ Director	Key Stakeholders Directors, Project Managers, Supervisors

Job Purpose:

To ensure safety is maintained to a high standard and complies with various legislation, policies and procedures.

Key Areas of Responsibility:

- Providing dedicated project-based support on all matters relating to health & safety
- Report writing and carrying out H&S Inspections and Audits in line with company and statutory duties.
- Investigation writing and carrying full investigations of incidents.
- Advising management/key personal in all matters relating to health & safety to ensure best practice.
- Delivering training, toolbox talks and inductions.
- Chair and attend various H&S meetings internally and with clients and other CDM duty.
- Assisting the HSEQ Director to ensure the department is running efficiently and key stakeholders get the appropriate support they need

Gratte Brothers Group are an equal opportunities employer and welcome applications from all.

Knowledge & Experience

- Minimum 3 years' experience in a construction environment.
- Knowledge and experience of the 18th edition electrical safety.
- CDM.
- Experience of writing method statements, risk assessments, construction health/safety phase plans, policies and procedures.
- Accident & Investigation including root cause analysis.
- Delivering training.
- Behavioural safety.
- Environmental.

Attributes & Skills

- Good communicator.
- Team player.
- Problem solver.
- Building key relationships.
- Influencing and maintaining a good safety culture.
- Ability to work under pressure.
- Ability to meet tight deadlines.
- Ability to work on own.

Qualifications

- NEBOSH Construction Certificate/Equivalent
- NEBOSH General Certificate/Equivalent
- TechIOSH/Working toward Grad IOSH Status
- CSCS/Competence Card